M'DOWELL—ROSSER.

Mr. Emery McDowell, formerly of this city, but for some time a resident of Cincinnati, and Miss Lottie Rosser, one of the Merz Bros. corps of efficient clerks, were married in Cincinnati Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The news will be a surprise to many, but to those intimates and relatives, the union is but the happy culmination of a courtship which has been carried on for several months.

The bride is the only single daughter of Captain and Mrs. William Rosser, and, to those who know her, possesses accomplishments which stamp her the very embodiment of loveliness. She is rarely gifted with a bright mind, is lovely in nature and with a disposition as radiantly happy as sunshine is genuine and warm. She is domestic in habits and a woman in whom the wifely instincts are supreme.

Mr. McDowell is a splendid type and is prosperous in his business.

PATHETIC STORY

Downfall of the Once-Famous "Irish Thrush" in New York

New York Letter.

Early-morning wanderers on the Bowery stopped at the corner of Pell street. There the lights were bright, there was an odor of Chinese cookery in the air, and a gathering crowd testified to the existence of still another excuse to defer home-going. Propped against the corner building was a woman, once handsome, and still preserving more than a trace of former beauty. She had been singing the popular songs of the day, until a chance remark by an acquaintance turned the current. She cleared her bleared eyes, steadied herself for a moment, and then in a soprano voice, cracked and broken, it is true, but still carrying a wonderful, heart-searching, pathetic quality, began to sing "Nearer, My God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee."

The ribald crowd stilled. Two or three shabby, coarse-faced women left it, bound for the haven of forgetfulness to be found in the Pell street "pipe" joints. The big policeman who had quietly joined the gathering stood at attention until the last clear note had been drowned by the myriad noises of the dirty street. Then he said: "Come on, Mag., you know you haven't any business singing songs like that down here." She walked with him to the patrol box, wiping away the easy tears of a drunken woman. Three years ago Maggie McDonald was known throughout all New York as the "Irish Thrush." A woman of remarkable beauty, she had been given a thorough musical education, and was possessed of a magnificent voice. At different times she was the soprano soloist in the choirs at the Cathedral at Dublin, and here at St. Thomas, Trinity and Grace Churches. One need not inquire into her story, for even now she is but 25 years old.

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY

MAYSVILLE is the county seat of Mason county, one of the most fertile in the state of Kentucky. It is a thriving city of nearly 10,000 inhabitants and is located on the Ohio river about 65 miles East of Cincinnati.

Considered, both from a geographical and topographical standpoint, it has advantages that are manifold in importance, as well as attractive to the admirers and lovers of rare and scenic beauty.

The importance of Maysville as a center to the manufacturer seeking a base for his operations presents opportunities unmeasurably superior to those of many other cities of her size. Her rates of taxation are low; she has unexcelled transportation facilities, and she is one of the most enterprising cities of best of public school systems, churches of every denomination, and our banks and financial institutions are bulwarks of integrity.

The city is at present expending thousands of dollars on street improvements. The streets are to be all paved with brick and are to make a showing for Maysville that will be a credit to her people and their public spiritedness.

Maysville has, no doubt, more real public spirit than half the cities in the country. The reviews of the different lines of business which follow, will give our readers some idea of the magnitude of business conducted here. Nearly every representative house is found in the list, and we can conscientiously say that not one is here but what is worthy and deserving of the most extended patronage.

the state, offering to manufacturers wonderful inducements in the way of bonuses, etc.

The city is unrestricted by natural obstacles to the enlargement of area, as are many of the larger cities, there being abundant room for manufacturing establishments, residences, and the gradual extension of a large metropolis in every direction.

Not many cities of ten thousand inhabitants enjoy the varied and numerous metropolitan advantages that we do. We have an electric railway service that would do credit to a city thrice the size of Maysville. Our water works capacity is ample for the needs of a much larger population, while our gas and electric light facilities are of the best. We have the very

JOHN I. WINTER.

A leading concern in its line, which takes an active and highly effective hand in Maysville's commercial expansion, is that of John I. Winter, whose salesrooms and warehouse are located at 12 W. Second street and 204-206 Sutton street. This business was established about ten years ago, and the concern has grown and prospered, enlarging its premises until it can lay just claim to being the largest concern of its kind in this part of the state. Mr. Winter occupies five floors on E. Second street heavily stocked with furniture of all kinds, and three floors on Sutton street where everything in implements and machinery is carried. The furniture department is familiarly known as the "White Palace" and is most appropriately named, it being indeed a mercantile palace. The firm has just added to its stock a line of talking machines, which they are offering very reasonably. They also handle pianos, making a specialty of the celebrated Ebersole. Mr. Winter is one of the most public spirited citizens of Maysville and stands high in both social and commercial circles. He is easily Maysville's past master as a "hustler."

42 WEST SECOND ST.

204-206 SUTTON STREET

WM. MEARN'S & CO.

A concern that we wish to call special attention to on account of its rapid progress is that of Wm. Mearns & Co. Mr. Mearns is an old and experienced broom manufacturer and has been in business for fully twenty years, the experience gained during this time being large and varied. The company is located at 1020 East Third street, where they have a fully equipped plant. They manufacture brooms, brushes, whisks, toy brooms, ware house and stable brooms, and are dealers in broom manufacturers' supplies of all kinds. Their output is from 300 to 400 dozen a week and is shipped throughout the surrounding country, going East as far as New York City and Philadelphia. In speaking of the superiority of this company's product we wish to make mention of the fact that a man from New York wanted to engage this company's entire output, which was refused because Mr. Mearns felt it his duty as well as a pleasure to care for his home trade. However, the plant is to be enlarged in the near future when a much more extensive business can be taken care of. Mr. Mearns is going to Kansas next month for the purpose of getting broom corn direct from the farmers, and enough to last him one year, or about one hundred and fifty tons. They employ from 18 to 25 people who receive all the way from 40 cents to $3 per day in wages, working piece work.

JAMES S. REDMOND.

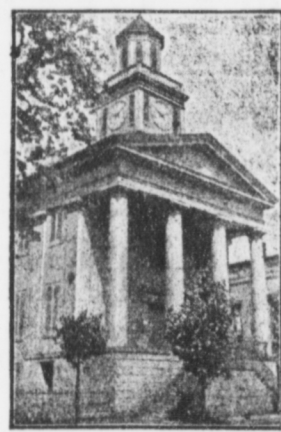

The cigar manufacturing industry is probably one of the largest industries in the world. Millions of dollars are circulated every year and it gives employment to thousands of worthy people. Maysville, like all metropolitan cities, has her share, one of the most important being that of James S. Redmond, whose factory is at 130 W. Second street. He makes quite a specialty of the "Palace" cigar, an article that really comes under the head of ten-cent goods, but sells for the popular price of five cents. This company has been established for twenty-five years and during all that time have met with great success. Mr. Redmond is also a dealer in staple and fancy groceries, chewing and smoking tobaccos.

HENRY W. RAY.

An enterprising establishment in the drug line is that of Henry W. Ray, who carries a well assorted stock of drugs of all descriptions, pure and unadulterated chemicals, proprietary medicines, perfumeries, toilet articles, etc. The most watchful care is exercised under all circumstances and particular attention is paid to compounding prescriptions. We cheerfully recommend this house to the public.

S. NELSON.

One of the leading establishments in men's furnishings is the subject of this sketch. The house deals in a first class and well selected stock of hats, men's furnishings, etc. They make a specialty of custom made shirts and have built up a large patronage along this line. Mr. Nelson is well and favorably known as a public spirited citizen, always ready to do his share toward the betterment of Maysville.

Mason County Courthouse, Built 1848

D. HECHINGER & CO.

We don't believe there is a single name connected with Kentucky's clothing business as familiar to the ears of thousands as that of "Hechinger." It requires but little space to tell you of "Maysville's Home Store." Mr. D. Hechinger, the senior partner of D. Hechinger & Co., has been identified with Maysville's clothing business for nearly a half century. During these years many in the same business have come and gone. Today D. Hechinger & Co. are doing a greater volume of business than ever before. It is a veritable fact that one half of the goods the house sells are sold to the grandchildren of its first patrons, way back in the early sixties. Why this unwavering allegiance to the old house? Easily explained. The firm from its infancy has kept pace with the constantly improving methods of business. "No catch penny advertisements." They sell what they advertise and advertise what they sell. They only buy the best of merchandise. Hence, sell only the best. Being closely identified with the best manufacturers of clothing, hats, shirts and all kinds of men's furnishings, the house is in a position to supply its patrons with the newest, snappiest, and most stylish goods that the market produce. In late years the firm added men's and boys' shoes to their line and though but a few years selling shoes the brands they handle namely, Hanan & Son, W. L. Douglas and the Walkover, has gained for them the almost entire trade of those that want good shoes.

A. CLOONEY.

No more favorable location exists in Maysville than that of the extensive jewelry store owned and managed by Mr. A. Clooney, and there is no house better known than this for their fine watches, jewelry and diamonds, silver and plated ware, also a full line of cutlery and optical goods. Mr. Clooney has stood at the head of the business in Maysville for a long time and the fact that his trade is constantly increasing and extending is the best evidence one can possibly have that his prices are fair and his goods are reliable.

MURRAY & THOMAS.

This firm are "monumental architects" and are manufacturers of high grade monuments. They make a specialty of original designs, and in their ten years of existence have done business in almost every point in Northern and Eastern Kentucky, such as Ashland, Carlisle, Millersburg, Mt. Olivet, Germantown, Elizaville, Flemingsburg, Shannon, Washington, etc. Murray & Thomas have been established ten years, although the business has been in existence over 75. They have every facility in the way of machinery to build "good monuments cheap." This firm do not claim to be the cheapest but they do claim to be as good as the best in their line. They are located at 108 and 110 W. Second street, where they invite an inspection of their work.

THE F. H. TRAXEL CO.

A business place that excels in the luxuriance of its furnishings, in taste of arrangement and in inviting appearance is that of the above named company. They carry a fine line of candies, manufactured by themselves, serve ice cream, soda, etc.

This company are also bakers, and manufacturers of ice cream, and make a specialty of supplying parties, etc., with cake, candy and cream and fancy ices. The business was established in 1882 by Mr. F. H. Traxel, and Mr. W. L. Traxel, the present proprietor, succeeded him in 1897, since which time he has built up the largest business in his line in the city.

MISS EMMA B. LUMAN.

An emporium of fashion is located at 39 West Second street. It is the millinery establishment owned by Miss Emma B. Luman, successor to Mrs. Davis. Miss Luman, although in business but a short time, is well and widely known, having been connected with Mrs. Davis for the past six years. The stock consists of everything first class in the millinery line, embracing all the newest novelties, many of which are imported. Everything leaving Miss Luman's store is sure of being the correct thing in millinery confections. Miss Luman is assisted by Miss Maria Boyd, who is also well known.

J. C. CABLISH.

There is no better or more favorably known grocery house in Maysville than that of the above-named company, located at 6 E. Third street. They handle a very large stock of staple and fancy groceries and have gained a reputation for honest dealing, good goods and low prices second to none. They also handle fruits of all kinds, vegetables and game in season of the freshest and best. The air of general prosperity about this store is the best evidence of the store's success.

Dickson and Eneas Myall, Jr., who are also undertakers and embalmers. The business has been established 5 years, since which time the firm have built up a very satisfactory trade. They keep twenty head of horses for livery hire and board a great many more. They also have horses for sale and make a specialty of hitching. They are open day and night and the number of their telephone is 14, a call of which will always elicit a prompt reply and quick service.

FARMERS AND TRADERS BANK

The latest acquisition to the financial interests here is found in the Farmers and Traders Bank. This institution has just opened its doors to the public and if high standing, prominence in all public matters, and ample capital are any criterion the future of the bank is assured. The counting rooms are located on the corner of Market and West Second street, and have been fitted up with new and modern bank furnishings.

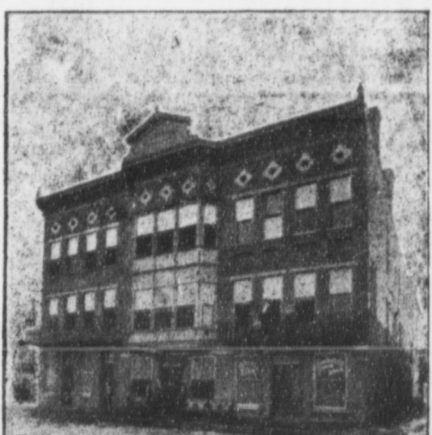

This bank will conduct a general banking business, receive deposits, handle savings, etc., and solicits the business of all firms, corporations, individuals, etc.

Pearce, Cashier; Thomas Malone, Ross P. Gault, Geo. Diener, W. Scott Osborne and W. L. Holton, all of whom are gentlemen of the strictest integrity and public-spirited citizens of the highest standing.

G. W. ROGERS & CO

A house that holds a place of influence in the distinctive line is that of G. W. Rogers & Co., wholesale liquor dealers and distillers' agents of fine Kentucky whiskies. This business was established in 1890 and was located at 127 Market until recently when Mr. Rogers moved to his present large and elegantly equipped establishment at 230 Market. Mr. W. C. Rogers, the proprietor, is perhaps one of the best posted men in this vicinity on choice whisky and has gained a reputation for handling as pure an article as can be obtained. He makes a specialty of "Rogers' Old Stock," bourbon and rye, and Rogers' Old Bourbon bottled goods, which are sold throughout the country as far as Pomeroy and as far the other way as Cincinnati. Mr. Rogers advertises his "Old Stock" as the best $2 whisky on earth, and judging from the many large orders that are coming in constantly we think and, in fact know, that it is the truth.

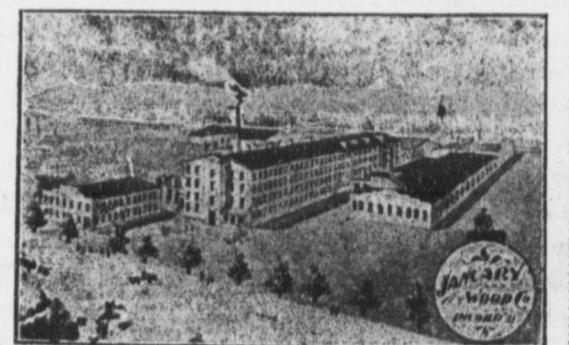

THE NEW ST. CHARLES HOTEL

Maysville is indeed fortunate in the possession of the New St. Charles Hotel. This house is conducted by Mrs. M. W. Coulter and is one of the best $1.50 and $2.00 a day hotels in the state. It is the

Mr. Thomas's success has been due in a large measure to his genial, accommodating manner and to his desire in all instances to please the public.

THE FOUNTAIN CASH STORE

A strictly cash business is the only method to follow nowadays especially in the grocery trade, and those who live up to it are always better able to sell goods cheap, not having to demand an interest in the shape of high prices. Mr. J. W. O'Donnell established this business some years ago and by following the cash system has prospered where many failed. He carries a full line of staple and fancy groceries, choice liquors, pure wines, brandies, etc., sporting goods, tinware, hardware, glassware, chinaware, fishing tackle, musical instruments, jewelry, novelties, notions of all kinds, etc. He is located at 218 Market street and is very well and popularly known.

GEORGE H. FRANK & CO.

Maysville's Foremost Clothiers.

This store with a personality all of its own, laying aside every old method, and taking up all new and right ways of merchandizing, having for its policy, "absolute satisfaction or your money back," saying to themselves at its conception, just four short years ago, that if they could not conduct their business on strict business lines they would quit. Thus the foundation was laid for a career of which they can feel they deserve. Retail merchandizing is essentially a business of small things. The individual items which make up the total of sales are small and in most cases the margin of profit is also small. Consequently only a little margin of waste in the handling of these goods is necessary in order completely to dissipate that small margin of profit; that's why you see every man a working man in this shop, every man can do what any other man can, taking up where one leaves off; no time, energy or money lost, cutting down expense to such a low basis, that this shop is a success, giving their customers better, instead of cheaper goods all the time.

One of the strong indications showing this firm's growing strength, is in the fact it does enough business during the week that they are not compelled to keep open on Sunday.

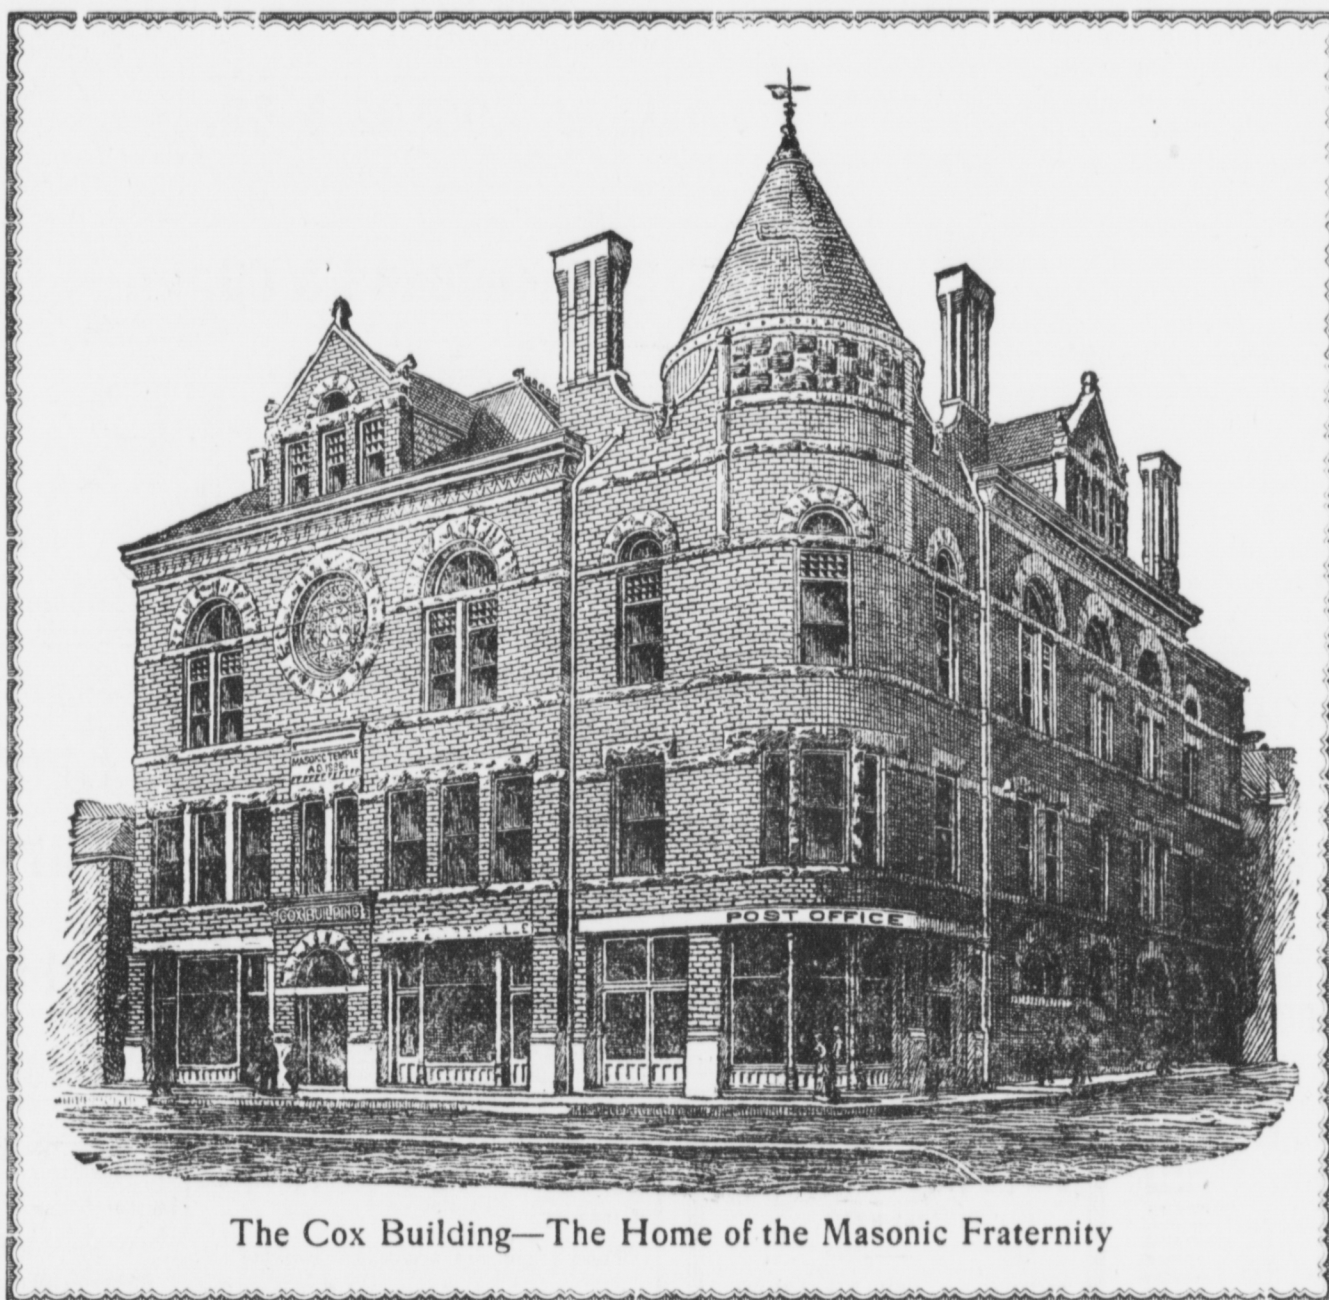

Now to sum up a few facts in regard to Maysville's Foremost Clothiers we are proud of them for they are all native born of this community, that they know their business, the clothing business, and nothing else. They go to the open market, instead of waiting for the market to come to them. They are always the same pleasant, agreeable and courteous, today, yesterday and forever, realizing their customer's interest is their interest. Maysville's betterment, for the betterment of all, that's why they are Foremost in all good works, in selling clothing for Men and Boys and at the same time live for Maysville, that the Men and Boys will be better, and have better pay.

With only one clerk at its beginning, this shop now has in its employ Mr. William Dudley Quaintance, Mr. Samuel Holmes McNutt, Mr. John McCarthey and Mr. Harry Otto, besides several extra sales people on busy days and during the holidays. George Frank the proprietor is well known in this community and we are glad that folks who buy from him are so well pleased that tell others of this shop and their way of doing business.

JOHN J. O'DONNELL.

Located at 207 Court street is the above named gentleman, dealer in fire insurance and collections. Mr. O'Donnell was born and brought up here and has been most successful in his business, having always treated his patrons squarely. He represents two of the oldest and most reliable fire insurance companies in the world, which are the Phoenix Fire Insurance Company and Pennsylvania Fire Company.

Mr. O'Donnell is also a Notary Public.

SALLIE S. WOOD'S DRUGSTORE

This company has been established for over thirty years by Mr. George T. Wood, and the present owner Miss Sallie S. Wood succeeded him. The store is located at 200 Market street and is very large and heavily stocked with the very best grade of drugs, sundries and toilet articles. They make a specialty of the prescription department where all work is executed accurately and promptly.

Recently on Coon Creek, six miles North of Salsersville, Henry Montgomery went to the house of Alva Montgomery, a prominent farmer and politician, called him to the door and shot his brains out. The two men are cousins.

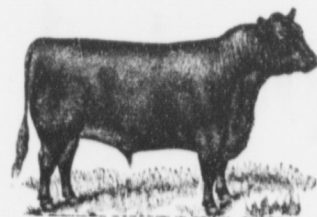

Sir Thomas Lipton in an interview said he was ready and willing to challenge for the America's cup next year. The reason he has hesitated hitherto was because the British designers said they did not think they would have an equal chance again with an American boat. This in fact English is understood to be an admission of the superiority of American yacht designing.

Spain has 600,000 titled persons, or about one in every thirty-eight inhabitants. But such titles are held as less than nothing by the original peerage of the country. These are known as the Grandees and form an aristocracy entirely by birth, some of them having no handles at all to their names, and yet entirely refusing to mix with even Dukes of new creation. To become a Spanish Baron $2,000 is sufficient. A Viscounty costs double that amount, while to be made a Count a payment of $6,000 is necessary.

A review of Maysville would be incomplete without a mention of C. M. Phister, a gentleman who has lived here all his life and been identified with navigation since his boyhood. He controls what is familiarly known as Upper Landing and owns and operates the steamer Laurance and the gasoline pleasure and business boat Floridel. The Laurance is named for his son and is conceded to be the finest and most substantial ferry on the Upper Ohio. CHAIRMAN YOUNG is probably innocent of the charge of adjourning the Democratic Congressional Convention in order to swell their hotel bills for the benefit of boniface DAUGHTERY.

THE Democrats of Bath county know a bad thing when they see it. In their Congressional County Convention they voted down a resolution indorsing the Democratic State Administration.

MR. BRYAN's latest fad is the Government ownership of all trunkline railways, and state ownership for all the little roads. This would mean that Uncle Sam is to own the Chesapeake and Ohio; in which event what would become of the Damage Suit Lawyers?

THE Democratic nomination for Congress came to Mr. KEHOE wholly unsolicited. At no time was he anything more than a receptive candidate; and, whatever else may be said, it is universally conceded that he is the strongest man that could have been named for the place. The fight over his nomination was waged between the McCREARY and the BECKHAM factions of the Democracy, with BECKHAM's banner trailing the Opera-house floor among the cigar stumps—in the first round, at least!

WONDER if the Hon. PERCY HALEY has heard from Bath county?

THE Rev. CHARLES FREDERIC GOSS, one of Cincinnati's most popular Preachers, is traveling abroad, and his "Snapshots" printed daily in The Commercial Tribune have been enjoyed by every reader. They have been "something different" from the stereotyped character of travel letters. Recently he was at Chamonix and took a stroll across the magnificent Mer de Glace, remarking as to one point of the journey—

"To the element of sheer enjoyment of nature in one of her grandest aspects was added that of the most gracious companionships. At a steep spot of our morning ascent we made the acquaintance of two young Egyptians, a brother and sister, both of whom could speak four languages, in every one of which I think—in English I am sure—they could express the sweetest and noblest sentiments of which the soul of man is capable. Before the day was over it seemed to us as if we had lived for years in the same street with them in Avondale."

When he comes marching home Bro. Goss will probably be qualified to measure the needs of Egypt for Foreign (American) Missionaries.

FATHER TOOK SON'S WHIPPING.

New York Press.

The boy had misbehaved, as he often did, and his father called him to account.

"Son," said the father, "I hate to lick you, but some one must get a whipping for what you've done."

The boy whimpered a little.

"Suppose," said the father, "that I take the whipping for you!"

The boy laughed at the idea, but the father took down a dog whip, called a friend who was visiting at the house, explained the situation to him and then requested the visitor to use the whip on him.

The father wore a long-tailed coat and the visitor hit the tails of that coat in great style.

At the first crack of that whip the boy was wild-eyed. At the second he was clawing, biting and kicking the man with the whip.

"Don't whip my papa! Don't whip him!" he cried.

"Whip me! Oh, whip me!"

That was a year ago. Since then that boy has never done anything seriously wrong.

Sour Stomach

I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief only for a short time. WILL BE PRACTICAL MEN

Sons of Chicago Millionaires Are Doing Menial Labor

Sons of six Chicago millionaires have been working during the summer vacation period in and near Chicago for salaries ranging from $20 to $30 a month. They have accepted menial positions in preference to the pleasures of summer resorts, yachting, trips abroad and mountain climbing, because they are anxious to study the character of men, become closer to nature and learn trades and occupations so they may be able to follow their fathers as captains of industry.

These young men are college students and have millions back of them, but they must first prove their fitness to handle the vast estates built up by their fathers. These hard-headed progenitors hold that a boy who is trained on cigarettes, steam yachts, automobiles and angel food is hardly competent to jump into possession of their great wealth and hope to handle it properly.

The East has offered several examples of this sort, and in Chicago half a dozen fine old families have died out and the great estates have passed to strangers because the sons were not properly trained. So the spectacle is offered of young men with magnificent homes and all the luxuries wealth can command, toiling in the fields, in machine shops or taking their chances at any employment that offers. They are learning a hard lesson, but one that will be of untold benefit in the long run.

These millionaire social settlement workers are happy at their hard toil. They pay little attention to the heat of the fields or the work shop, and when their day's labors are at an end they do not spend their evenings in recreation, but spend the time in social research and study. Some of the young men will return to their colleges in a few weeks to continue their studies, but those who have been graduated will continue their work in expectation of receiving an increase in salary when their work merits it.

Democratic Convention

THE MAYSVILLE MAN WINS

Kehoe Named For Congress After Twenty-Eighth Ballot

A Typical Goebel-Redwine Chairman "Runs Things" to Suit Himself

HON. JAMES N. KEHOE.

As predicted in Friday's Ledger, the Democratic Congressional Convention held in the Opera-house Saturday was something out of the ordinary, being highly entertaining and interesting throughout. It is safe to say its like had never before been seen in this city and perhaps never will be.

The meeting was called to order at 10:20 a. m. by District Chairman W. A. Young, who immediately announced nominations for Temporary Chairman in order. James Minogue of Nicholas, representing the Kehoe forces, and W. A. Young, the opposition, were placed in nomination, and the latter was chosen by a vote of 54 to 52.

Next in order was the selection of Editors H. Duley of Fleming and Owen Ratliff of Bath as Secretaries; and, by the way, Mr. Duley performed the duties of his office in a dignified and becoming manner, demonstrating that he is well up in parliamentary law and usages, and a fair, square man at all times and under most trying circumstances.

There being no contested delegation the Committee on Credentials was dispensed with.

The Committee on Resolutions and Organization was as follows—

Bath—Waller Sharp.
Boyd—L. T. Everett.
Bracken—W. A. Byron.
Carter—Frank Powers.
Fleming—B. S. Grannis.
Greenup—D. C. Wilson.
Harrison—J. J. Osborne.
Lawrence—H. C. Sullivan.
Lewis—R. D. Wilson.
Mason—C. D. Newell.
Nicholas—James Minogue.
Rowan—E. S. Wilson.
Robertson—H. S. Young.

The first ripple of discord started promptly when a very quiet motion was made and put to adjourn till 1 o'clock. There were a few weak ayes, but the roar of nays could have been heard in Aberdeen. Notwithstanding the decided majority against adjournment, the Chair decided the motion carried and adjourned the meeting to the hour stated.

When questioned by a delegate as to the correctness and fairness of his decision in adjourning the Convention when it was so palpably wrong Young retorted with considerable acerbity, "I am your Chairman, and I will rule as I please."

It was past the hour when the Convention reassembled in the afternoon, and the Committee on Organization and Resolutions not having made its appearance, a committee of three, consisting of Wall of Mason, Ratliff of Bath and Caudill of Rowan, was appointed to go in search of the missing gentlemen. In the meantime the house became impatient, there being no music to entertain the delegates, and calls were made on various persons for a speech. Senator McCreary made his appearance in the auditorium at this unrestful stage, and being espied caused an ovation and demonstration in his favor which certainly gave assurance that he was in the midst of friends. After long continued cries for McCreary, he was hustled down the aisle and assisted onto the stage by Chairman Young. He consumed about twenty minutes in extolling the virtues of the Democratic party and berating the Republican party for its shortcomings. In passing he gave out a few bouquets as to his own statesmanship and what he had done for the great common people, incidentally informing his audience that he was entitled to an endorsement as United States Senator; that Governor Beckham had been endorsed by a re-election as Governor; that when an official had been honest and true to his trust an endorsement was due him.

His speech was well received and that he had many friends in the house was evidenced by the generous and hearty applause accorded him at the conclusion of his remarks.

The lost Committee having been found the regular business was taken up.

The resolutions reaffirmed the principles as laid down by Jefferson; endorsed Bryan and the contemplated improvement of the Ohio river in giving a nine-foot stage of water by the building of locks and dams, and entirely ignored the state officials.

The temporary organization was made permanent.

Here is where the monkey and parrot business began.

Chairman Young in returning thanks for the distinguished honor thrust upon him in selecting him as the presiding officer of the Convention, received respectful attention until he began championing the cause and candidacy of Governor Beckham.

Then it was that pandemonium broke loose in all its fury and might.

He began his speech by saying: "I am a Democrat from principle. I never expect to ask for any political preferment from my party. I am for Beckham against McCreary."

"Sit down! Sit down! That's enough! Hurrah for McCreary," came an avalanche of voices from all parts of the house.

The tumult was loud and long continued.

Fearless and pale, with inward emotion, the Chairman, whose dictum was "I will rule as I please," stood erect and defiant until the hissing and singing had died out from want of breath and exhaustion, and then he said—

"You fellows act like a set of jackasses with your braying and noise."

Finally order was restored and the business of the Convention was resumed and continued good naturedly to the end.

The following were placed in nomination—E. B. Hager of Boyd, Rolla K. Hart of Fleming, W. M. Moore of Harrison, Charles E. Day of Lewis and James Fraley of Rowan.

The name of Hon. James N. Kehoe was not presented but led from the start with 45 votes and continued in the lead to the finish.

After the fifteenth ballot a motion prevailed to drop the hindmost man after the twenty-fifth ballot.

On the twenty-eighth ballot the contest had narrowed down to a fight between Kehoe and Hager.

After Harrison county had swung to Kehoe the opposition recognized defeat and E. B. Hager, who made a gallant fight for the nomination, arose and in timely remarks withdrew from the contest and moved that Mr. Kehoe's nomination be made unanimous, which was done with a hearty good will.

E. B. Hager was called to the platform and made a rattling good speech from a Democratic standpoint. He is a bright young man and is bound to be heard from in the future.

Hon. James N. Kehoe being escorted to the stage delivered a speech that aroused great enthusiasm and excited the admiration of his friends and supporters to a high pitch.

As a Democratic Convention it was a howling success.

W. B. MATHEWS & CO.

One of the largest and most truly representative business concerns in Maysville is that of W. B. Mathews & Co. THE BANK OF MAYSVILLE.

One of the leading banks in Mason county is the old and rock-ribbed Bank of Maysville, established in 1871, and succeeding the Maysville Branch of the Bank of Kentucky, which was established in 1835. This Bank has a capital stock and surplus of $100,000 and has always played an important and highly valuable part in financial activities of this community. A general banking business is conducted and the institution is in a most excellent financial condition, showing its management to be able, judicious, sagacious and wisely conservative.

The officers are J. F. Barbour, President, A. M. J. Cochran, Vice-President, R. K. Hoeflich, Cashier, George T. Barbour, Book-keeper, James Barbour, Book-keeper, James Childs, Clerk, and Mary A. The present President and Cashier have been identified with the Bank since its organization and have been largely instrumental in its great success.

MAYSVILLE COAL CO.

Four years ago Mr. Godfrey Hunsicker identified himself with the coal business of this city, making the inception of the Maysville Coal Co. an addition to our commercial interests that indeed has been of great help and benefit. He has enlarged and improved his business until today we can say without exaggeration that he controls two-thirds of the coal business of Maysville. He deals also in salt, sand and bricks and is the agent for the famous alabaster cement plaster. He handles the celebrated charter oak coal and has a large stock on hand which he offers to patrons at a good bargain, especially when ordered in the summer months.

Mr. Hunsicker's great success has been due in a large measure to his foresight and the fact that he always grasps a good thing when he sees it. A motto of his is "never to hesitate!" This was lived up to recently as is shown in the following notice which we clipped from THE PUBLIC LEDGER of August 23d.

Councilman Godfrey Hunsicker, the East End coal man, is absorbing everything in his reach. His latest acquisition is the leasing of Dryden's coal elevators and landing in the Sixth Ward for three years with the privilege of five more.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Maysville banking interests cannot be over estimated in their importance and in what they have done for the growth and prosperity of the city in every line of business and manufacture. A leading Bank here is the First National Bank, an institution that is widely noted for its soundness and conservatism of its management.

The Bank carries on a general banking business and is equipped with all the necessary furnishings known to the banking life of the present day. The capital stock is $105,000, which is further augmented by a surplus and profits of $55,000. The officers are Ben Longnecker, President, Daniel Perrine, Vice-President, and W. W. Ball, Cashier, the Directors being the above, except Mr. Ball, Walter Matthews, T. A. Keith and P. P. Parker, all of whom are men of strict integrity and large public spirit.

MAYSVILLE MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

The company whose name heads this article was established in 1884. They are manufacturers of and dealers in sash, doors, blinds, mouldings, office furniture, and store fittings, and make a specialty of stair building. They also make a specialty of every description of finishing material for interior or exterior of buildings in either hard or soft wood. The business, since its inception, has continued to grow and thrive and today the company ships its product throughout the surrounding country within a radius of a hundred miles. They have furnished material for some of the best Church buildings in the state and samples of their work can be found in almost all of the new buildings erected in Mason county during the past decade. Mr. L. M. Mills, the superintendent and general business manager, is a gentleman of rare business ability and high standing to whom the success of this company is largely due.

J. WESLEY LEE.

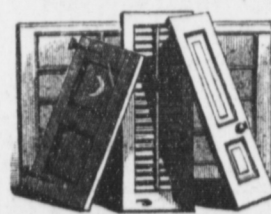

In every city there are examples of those whose special business pursuits, whose prominence in all matters of public enterprise, whose record for unflinching integrity, undaunted energy and untiring industry make them objects of note, not alone in their especial field of labor, but wherever exalted commercial reputation is recognized and respected. Mr. J. Wesley Lee belongs to this class. He started in business a good many years ago, and through energy, push, fine goods and low prices, has built up one of the finest trades in the county. He carries a large and varied assortment of mens', youths' and boys' clothing, furnishing goods, etc., the store being heavily stocked. It is located on the corner of Market and Second streets and is one of the largest and most attractive in the city, being one of the favorite trading places of Maysville.

WINTER & EVERETT.

Every locality of any magnitude affords some enterprising concern prepared to conduct the handling of grain, seeds, etc., on a scale and in a manner that will insure first-class goods, in large variety and at reasonable prices. In this connection we wish to call attention to the firm of Winter & Everett, dealers in grain, seeds, of all kinds, etc.

Winter & Everett procure their goods from only the best sources of supply throughout the country, and have amassed a very large and flattering trade. They are the leaders in their line in Maysville, their business premises being fitted up with every convenience to facilitate the filling of orders promptly and satisfactorily. Messrs. Winter & Everett are both gentlemen who have won a foremost position in the business world and stand high both in social and commercial circles.

H. H. COLLINS LUMBER CO.

A company to which we wish to call special attention, on account of their high business standing, is the H. H. Collins Lumber Company. This company manufactures all their own goods and have a large factory at Cincinnati, O. They make a specialty of hardwood flooring, yellow pine flooring, cypress flooring, stair work, porch work, yellow pine and oak mantels and fixtures, grilles, interior finish, window glass, window frames, mouldings, door frames, W. P. doors, Y. P. doors, blinds, felt roofing, cement plaster, mixed paints and sash. This company enjoys the reputation of possessing the largest trade in this line in the city, their success being largely due to the fact that they give the people the best for the least money. Write to them for estimates and be assured that all work turned out is of the best.

In reviewing the causes that have operated in making Maysville the important commercial center that she now is, and that have placed her in a proud position of a leading city, Merz Bros. can be accorded high honors. Commencing business something over 5 years ago on a rather modest scale, each year has marked a step onward in the march of progress, until today Merz Bros. can lay just claim to being one of the largest dry goods stores in Northern Kentucky. They occupy three floors, all of which are heavily stocked with everything in the dry goods, carpet and notion line. Merz Bros. have during these years been upright, straightforward and honorable in all their business dealings and have built up a trade that is bound to remain with them as long as they are engaged in mercantile pursuits. They make a special point of bringing on the very latest novelties in dressgoods, trimmings, etc., and the people of the surrounding country have learned that by trading with Merz Bros. they are just as sure of receiving a strictly up-to-date article, as though trading in Cincinnati. This firm do both a wholesale and retail business and have an office in New York City, which probably enables them to buy much cheaper and receive the new styles much quicker than those who are not so fortunate.

They employ twenty-five people, all of whom are accommodating and courteous to all patrons. The Messrs. Merz personally are genial, clever gentlemen whose many years in their worthy business career have stamped them with that commanding presence which inspires one with that confidence and assurance so necessary in the establishment of the ties of friendship and patronage.

The following letter has just been received from Mr. Millard Merz who is at present in New York. We think it may interest the public:

NEW YORK OFFICE MERZ BROS.,
45 Lispenard Street.

My Dear Friends: It may not be out of order to address a few lines to our friends and customers to inform them of what is going on in this section of the country. I have been buying goods the past two weeks in large quantities, in new effects and the latest fads.

It is useless to inform you of the necessity of coming to New York to buy merchandise; you cannot have the right goods and stay home. Drummers show very nice goods and lots of variety, but they do not carry the new and exclusive things that are shown here. Take Ladies' Suits, for instance: I was told by several drummers before I left that they had sold our competitors, and that we had better buy or get left. Up to the present time I have bought only a handful of suits. The proper suit styles will be decided September 4th, and then I will buy and send same home by express. Watch the papers and when we the suits are right, then buy, not e. All top coats will be plain box 52 inches long, made like a man's coat. Trusting this information to you all some good, I am,

Very truly yours,
MILLARD MERZ,
Of Merz Bros., Maysville, Ky.

W. F. POWER

located at 28 and 30 W. Second street above named gentleman, proprietor of the oldest stove house in Maysville. Mr. Power has been established in this business and at this address for almost 20 years, something of which he may justly feel proud. He gives employment to three men and he handles ranges, refrigerators, stoves, mantels, grates, tinware, kitchen specialties, etc., making a specialty of ranges, stoves and heaters of the best makes only.

J. H. ROGERS & CO.

The above named company are proprietors of the widely known Limestone Distillery, where the celebrated Limestone Sour Mash Whisky is manufactured. This company is perhaps one of the best known in the state. Their brand "Limestone" is shipped all over the country, and is known to be one of the few pure whiskies sold in the United States. The company has one of the largest and best equipped distilleries in the state, the combined capacity being 8,000 barrels. Messrs. F. H. Clark and J. C. Rogers, the proprietors, are both well known and highly respected as gentlemen of strict integrity. In speaking of business, Mr. Clark says: "We are enjoying the best trade, since our inception." Mr. Clark is a public spirited citizen, and a gentleman with whom it is a pleasure to do business.

THOMPSON & McATEE.

The steady march of progress that has characterized the almost phenomenal growth of Maysville has been largely due to the applied efforts of her business men in every direction. A firm that has done its share is that of Thompson & McAtee, jobbers of farm implements and steel roofing and manufacturers of buggies, carriages, surreys, etc. This firm are the largest of their line in the city and control a very fine trade which extends throughout all the tributary territory. Their warehouse at 120 and 122 West Second street is very large and is equipped with every modern device necessary to facilitate the carrying on of a constantly increasing trade.

The members of the firm are well and favorably known and are public spirited in a large degree.

KEYSTONE COMMERCIAL CO.

The head offices of this company are located in Pittsburgh, the branch here being its main buying branch. The company are dealers in poultry, butter and eggs, also grain, hay, mill feed and produce. The business has been established about 8 years, the first four of which the firm was known as the Henderson-Johnston Co. Four years ago the Keystone Commercial Co. took control and have increased the trade four fold. They do a business of $250,000 a year. This company purchased at one time in the month of April 5,500 cases of eggs of 30 dozen each.

They handle poultry, turkeys, etc., and in the season of 1904 and 1905 bought and shipped 33,000 rabbits and 7,000 quail. These figures may give our readers some idea of the magnitude of business done by this company.

Mr. E. L. Manchester has been with this company since its inception and a large share of this phenomenal success has been due to his efforts, sagacity and general business ability.

THE CENTRAL HOTEL.

There is nothing which adds so much to the distinction of a city as superior hotel accommodations, and it is surprising with what rapidity a city acquires a reputation, either good or indifferent in regard to her hostelry. In this connection there is no more attractive feature in Maysville than the Central Hotel, so ably managed by Messrs. J. W. Fitzgerald, H. B. Daugherty and Pat Sanmons the proprietors. Transient travelers to Maysville make the Central their headquarters, and the best and largest class of residents form the patronage of the house. This hotel has all the conveniences and facilities which a first-class house ought to embody. It is equipped with a large number of rooms, furnished throughout in the most modern style. The appearance of the dining-room is suggestive of a high-class state of excellence. The snowy linen and exquisite table ware are features of the menu, while the tables proverbially groan under the good things provided.

The whole of the cuisine and culinary departments is fashioned on the most liberal plan. The rush and hurry of the restaurants is never heard and the quiet dignity of the service is so redolent of home life that one seems to see the name written in large capitals in the very atmosphere of the house. Everything is arranged with a view to the comfort and convenience of the guests. The most pleasing feature about the Central Hotel is the wide popularity which reflects dignity and honor on Maysville.

W. RUSSELL WARDER.

Your property, your solvency, your credit, your future comfort, and that of your family may depend upon your fire insurance, and why not give it the attention its importance demands? Call on Mr. Warder without delay, as he represents only the best companies in fire, tornado and plate glass insurance.

D. HUNT & SON.

In every city we believe the dry goods business has the distinction of ranking first in position in mercantile affairs, as the goods handled are staples, supplying numberless articles of use and universally necessary. Of the houses engaged in this line of business in Maysville, we assert with confidence from the general report that none occupies a more prominent position with reference to the amount of stock carried, extent of business transacted, convenience and commodiousness of premises occupied than D. Hunt & Son, and none are superior to them in the high standard of commercial honor upon which their operations are based. The stock carried embraces everything in the drygoods line.

They carry a large assortment of ladies ready-to-wear garments and the people of Maysville have learned that by trading with this firm they are always sure of receiving the latest and most up-to-date styles. Their line of trimmings, laces, etc., is very complete, while their underwear department is without doubt the largest in the city. Their show windows always display something pretty and unique and by watching them one can keep posted on the new novelties as they come out. The business has been established over half a century and the name of "Hunt" has been so long identified with the dry goods business that an edition of this kind would be incomplete without an extended mention of the company.

MALONE & WALTON.

This company has been established 4 years and are dealers in coal of all kinds. They give employment to four people, and two teams are kept busy all the year, with the exception of the busy season when a much larger number is used. They make specialties of the following coal—Kanawha, Pomeroy, Plymouth, Peacock, etc. The company have enjoyed a very extensive trade this last season.

L. T. GAEBKE & CO.

Among the most important of the business interests of a city is the handling of fuel to meet the needs of the homes and industries of that city and surroundings. The leading firm engaged in this line of business in Maysville is that of L. T. Gaebke & Co., wholesale and retail dealers in coal, salt, sand and feed. The offices and yards of this firm are at Second and Poplar streets, where they also have a large warehouse, the dimensions of which are 45x100 feet. They have on hand an immense amount of coal and are enabled at all times to respond to the demands of dealers and consumers for the best quality of bituminous and anthracite coal. The company has been established for two years and gives employment to several people. They also make a specialty of buying railroad ties.

MITCHELL, FINCH & CO.'S BANK.

Kehoe was elected Cashier in March, 1905, the increase in deposits since said date being $160,455.02. The Savings Deposits Department pays 8% on deposits and was added to the Bank July 1st, 1905, having proven satisfactory and profitable to the Bank and its patrons. Business is growing and the stock increasing in value every day and we gladly recommend this institution to the public.

C. P. DIETERICH & BRO.

Without any doubt the largest green house in this section is that owned by C. P. Dieterich & Bro. This firm have been in business 40 years and enjoy an immense trade. They have nine green houses and have recently put up a large rose house 150 feet long. The company are nurserymen, florists and seedsmen, and always keep on hand a fine display of ornamental trees, etc. They have a store at 219 Market street where they handle cut flowers, seeds, etc. Mr. Dieterich is without doubt one of the best posted florists in Mason county, his success being due entirely to this knowledge. Write to him for booklet and information.

MAYSVILLE TELEPHONE CO.

A Company that has done and is doing its share toward the upbuilding of Maysville is the Maysville Telephone Co. It was established in 1896 and is the only telephone company here. They have both local and long distance service and will soon when entirely completed give their patrons connections with all points but New York City, San Francisco and Cincinnati. They have 600 subscribers, increasing this amount every day. The directors of the Company are Walter Matthews, President; S. H. Mitchell, Vice-President; Dr. Edwin Matthews, Treasurer and Manager; L. G. Parker, Secretary, and J. C. Monteith.

GRAND VIEW HOTEL.

This hotel has one of the finest locations in the city, directly on the river front. The proprietor, J. W. Insko, has been in control but six months, during which time he has put the house in first class condition and built up a good business. There are 23 rooms, all of which are kept clean and nicely furnished. The rates are $1 a day or $4 a week and Mr. Insko caters to the better class of trade, always receiving a large patronage among both transient and local trade. When in Maysville stop at the Grand View.

M. R. HIRSCHFELD.

This company has been established for 4 years and have a very large plant equipped with all the latest machinery for shoe manufacturing. They make a specialty of wooden sole shoes and besides doing a very large business in the United States, they also ship to Alaska and export to Africa and Australia. Mr. Hirschfeld, the proprietor, is a man of long experience in this line and one who has built up a very satisfactory business.

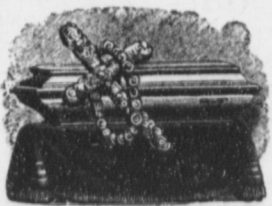

MAYSVILLE STREET RAILWAY

A company that deserves mention is the Street Railway Company. This company runs its cars from one end of the city to the other and give their patrons the best of service. They opened up Beechwood Park last season and this has helped to give Maysville people much amusement. Good companies appear here every week and other attractions make it a very pleasant place to pass an evening. A. M. J. Cochran is President of the company and R. A. Cochran Secretary and Treasurer.

THE STATE NATIONAL BANK

The importance of Maysville as a financial center is demonstrated by the record and solid prosperity of her banks. Among these we wish to call special attention to the standing of the State National Bank. This institution conducts a general banking business, receives deposits, issues letters of credit, etc., and is the U. S. Depository. The capital stock is $100,000, surplus and undivided profits $30,000. It is safe and conservative, and its depositors have always had most perfect faith in its management. The officers and Directors are Sam M. Hall, President; James N. Kirk, Vice-President; and Charles D. Pearce, Cashier. The Directors are R. B. Lovel, W. J. Rees and H. Picklin, who as useful, honorable, public-spirited citizens are universally regarded in the utmost favor.

OMAR DODSON.

One of the most conservative men in Maysville is found in Omar Dodson. Mr. Dodson has been connected with the wholesale grocery business of this city for a good many years and has always done his share toward advancing the interests of Maysville. He occupies a large four-story brick building at 9, 11, 15, 17 East Second street, where he carries a most complete line of groceries, liquors, seeds, etc. The business accomplished by him has been most satisfactory and is constantly increasing.

GARRETT S. WALL.

If it is true that good lawyers are born, not made, then certainly Mr. Garrett S. Wall was born an attorney, for none question his success, nor the ability upon which that success depends. Mr. Wall has practiced here over thirty years and is the oldest attorney in active practice in Mason county.

He has ever been most prominent, has been County Attorney four years, County Judge two terms, Master Commissioner two terms, was in the State Senate and was nominee for Congress but defeated by but 180 votes. Mr. Wall has a fine library and is one of those conservative gentlemen who confine their business within the four walls of his office and the court room. His success has been due largely to that conservatism, but withal he is a genial, courteous gentleman with whom to do business is a pleasure.

MIKE BROWN.

Mr. Brown is a dealer in and manufacturer of harness, saddles and bridles and has as fine a stock as can be found in Maysville. Mr. Brown has been established for a long time and is widely known among the farmers of this section with whom he has large dealings. His store is very centrally located and here can be found everything in his line. Anyone needing anything handled by Mr. Brown would do well to call on him.

E. G. BRIDGES.

This company is located at 115 Sutton street and has been established for the past 7 years, during which time Mr. Bridges, the proprietor, has built up a very large trade. Mr. Bridges has had considerable experience in this line, having served for fifteen years as box maker, foreman and manufacturer and also served three years as foreman in one of the largest cigar manufactories in Allegheny City, Pa. Mr. Bridges gives employment to a large force of help and his product is shipped throughout the surrounding country. He is prepared at all times to do first-class work at reasonable price and a trial will convince you of the truth of this statement.

M. P. REDMOND

In compiling the various industries of Maysville, the retail grocery trade assumes a decided importance. Among those the above named company occupy a conspicuous position. The premises are stored with a complete stock of staple and fancy groceries, flour, teas, coffees, and all kinds of provisions, in fact everything to be found in a first class establishment can be purchased here at the most reasonable prices. One is always assured of prompt attention, and we take pleasure in recommending this store to any who have not had the opportunity of visiting it. They are located on Third street.

M. F. COUGHLIN.

One of the best appointed livery, feed and sale stables in Mason county is that conducted by M. F. Coughlin and located at 109 Market street. His stables are well supplied with fine buggies, carriages, hacks, horses and turnouts of every description, and he gives particular attention to boarding horses. The business has been established fourteen years and employment is given to nine people. Calls are answered any hour of the night. In connection he conducts an undertaking establishment, these rooms being located at 8, 10, 12 Front street. Personally nothing need be said of Mr. Coughlin. His business is conducted upon the broadest basis of equity, and those dealing with him may rest assured that they will receive courteous treatment and at fair rates.

THOMAS J. CHENOWETH.

The above drugstore was established a good many years ago and from its inception it has always done a gratifying business. Mr. Thomas J. Chenoweth, the proprietor of the store, carries a full line of the best drugs on the market. The prescription department is his specialty. As all prescriptions are put up with accuracy and promptness, physicians make this a headquarters. He also carries a full line of sundries and toilet articles of all descriptions.

G. W. POLLITT.

The stable of which Mr. Pollitt is proprietor, has been established for about 18 months, and it is run as a first class institution in every respect. He has good accommodations for horses and vehicles and makes as low rates on boarding as can be obtained anywhere. He has a fine line of horses and vehicles and he also buys and sells horses. Anyone wishing anything in this line would do well to call on Mr. Pollitt, and get full value for the money spent and get the best of accommodations.

FRANK OWENS HARDWARE COMPANY

In the past few years this city has advanced in every way with marvelously rapid strides and many fine buildings show to what extent Maysville has grown among her metropolitan sister cities of Kentucky. One of the foremost firms that has contributed largely to the material growth and prosperity of the city is that of the Frank Owens Hardware Co. This business was established over forty years ago by Frank S. Owens, father of the present proprietors, and H. C. Barkley, but was incorporated later under the present name with R. B. Owens, President, and H. B. Owens, Secretary and Treasurer. The company are dealers in general hardware, doing both a wholesale and retail business. They are also importers of fine cutlery, razors, guns, etc., and are making quite a specialty of the American Field Wire Fence. They are located at 47 West Second and 117 Sutton streets, where they do an immense business and solicit a call from any or all who desire this line of goods.

MORRIS CAMPBELL HUTCHINS

The subject of this sketch is a native of Maysville and has practiced law since 1870. There is probably no man in Kentucky who has had a more varied or interesting career than Mr. Hutchins. He served in the Civil War over 4 years and was about the same length of time identified with the Spanish-American War. In 1898 the President sent Mr. Hutchins's name to the Senate for the position of Major and Chief Quartermaster, U. S. V. He was assigned to the staff of General Kent at Santiago, De Cuba, First Division Fifth Army Corps, where he received much praise for his efforts and general ability. After returning to the United States he was ordered to Cincinnati as Purchasing and Disbursing Quartermaster for the United States Army, where he remained nine months, after which he was ordered to South Framingham, Mass., seat of State Arsenal, where he equipped troops for the Philippines until December, 1899. At this time he was ordered to take charge of the United States Army transport, the McPherson, in which ship he made 29 voyages from New York to West Indies and one to Galveston, just after the great flood, where he went with provisions from the Government.

Mr. Hutchins was mustered out June 30th, 1901, since which time he has practiced law here and been most successful. He is a gentleman of great integrity and a very interesting one to talk to. His popularity is proven in the fact that he has been Mayor of Maysville and was the only man ever elected to County Judge on the Republican ticket.

M. J. DONOVAN.

The above named gentleman is one of the leading grocers of this city and has a large store which is heavily stocked at 151 East Third street. He is a dealer in staple and fancy groceries, green and dried fruits, poultry, butter, eggs, etc., and runs in connection a first class bar at the same address. Mr. Donovan has the distinction of having been born and raised here, and was for 8 years our Chief of Police, during which time he did some fine work along these lines.

BARKLEY'S SHOE STORE.

A shoe store that would be a credit to a city thrice the size of Maysville is found in that known as "Barkley's." This business was established 20 years ago by the father of the present owners and has stood in the lead since its inception. They carry a complete and up-to-date assortment of men's, women's and children's, shoes, slippers and rubbers, making a specialty of the "Dorothy Dodd," Smaltz-Goodwin Co., and Val Duttonhoffy ladies' shoes, and the J. E. Tilt Shoe Co. and T. D. Barry & Co.'s shoes for men.

The proprietors of the store are H. H. and F. O. Barkley, both of whom are well and popularly known as being among our most public spirited citizens and of always being willing to do their share toward the upbuilding of Maysville.

5c AND 10c STORE

C. H. Hitch, Prop.

A store that without doubt enjoys the largest trade in its line is that of the 5 and 10 cent store conducted by C. H. Hitch and located at 51 West Second street. The stock embraces every thing in china, glassware, notions, novelties, etc., and on August 29th with every fifty cent purchase the management gave away a handsome set of six teaspoons. This day was a big one with them, as hundreds of their old and many new patrons took advantage of this wonderful bargain. Mr. Hitch, the proprietor, is always offering "Bargains" and a large share of his success has been due to his judicious advertising. He is a large advertiser and makes every dollar count. Give him a call and be assured of receiving just what is represented.

CRANE & SHAFER.

This company have been established since February, 1906, and in that short time have impressed upon the public that they are here to stay. They are located in the Cox Building and have a very finely fitted out store. They deal in glass, picture framing, paints, etc., and are also contractors for painting, paper hanging, frescoing, etc. Messrs. Crane & Shafer were born and raised here and are worthy of the large patronage that they enjoy.

W. R. SMITH & CO

Among the stores of Maysville that carry heavy stocks and use every opportunity that presents itself for the advancement of the trade of themselves and the city, can be prominently mentioned that of W. R. Smith & Co. He has gradually increased his stock until now his large store is filled from floor to ceiling with the choicest productions of the leading manufacturers. He buys his stock largely in the East or wherever he can obtain the best goods for the least money, watching carefully for chances to buy reliable footwear at a bargain; when he is successful he gives his customers a large share of the benefit. Those wishing the best goods at the lowest prices should call at this store. It is located at 7 West Second street.

MISS ANNA B. KING.

Located at 44 West Second street is the millinery establishment of Miss Anna B. King. Miss King has an exceptionally large and full stock for a city like this. Her goods are all the very latest shades, designs and shapes. She employs only experienced help and by receiving all her goods and patterns direct from the East she is enabled to furnish her patrons the very latest styles at much lower prices than they would pay in the larger cities. She also handles fancy goods and notions.

W. HOLTON KEY.

The only exclusive insurance agency in this city is one conducted by W. Holton Key, who for four years has devoted his whole time to the study of insurance. He has been most successful, owing to the fact that he has made insurance a business and a study, and today can lay claim to the largest clientele in Maysville. This agency was of absolutely no account when Mr. Key took control. Today it is worth as much as any cashiership in the city.

Mr. Key represents the Springfield, Hanover, the Royal, Niagara, Royal Exchange and Providence Washington Fire Insurance Companies, and the Travelers of Hartford, which writes fire, life, accident, health and liability insurance. If you wish to take out an insurance policy, why not go to some one who has made a complete study of it and who understands it most thoroughly? Such a man is W. Holton Key.

OHIO RIVER LUMBER CO.

This company are manufacturers of good planing mill work. They have a large mill in the East End, located on the river, where they employ a large force of skilled saw and planing mill help. The officers of the company are: Harry Tolle, President; G. H. Bishop, Treasurer, and Roger Devine, Secretary, all of whom are public-spirited citizens of high standing.

BUCKNER GOODMAN

The consumption of wines and liquors in the United States is so vast that the trade necessarily involves considerations of the greatest importance. Among the most reliable and progressive wholesalers in wines and liquors in Maysville is the above named firm, who are located at 13 East Second street. This firm has guarded carefully its reputation for dealing only in the purest and best brands of whiskies, wines and brandies. Its customers know this and are never haunted by the fear that goods purchased of Mr. Goodman may not prove as represented. Mr. Goodman, the head of the firm, is a gentleman of boundless energy and possesses to the fullest degree the confidence and respect of local business circles.

KIRWIN & CO.

One of the representative concerns of Mason county is that of Kirwin & Co., composed of John A. and W. J. Kirwin. This business was established 4 years ago and has been most successful since its inception. The company are manufacturers of fine cigars, Union made, of the finest imported and domestic stock. Their brands, "Grey Eagle" and "El San-oo," are celebrated for being the best five-cent cigars on the market. The company keep one man on the road and employ six skilled cigarmakers at the factory.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Maysville People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words, but deeds, that prove true merit.
The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, For Maysville kidney sufferers, Have made their local reputation.
Proof lies in the testimony of Maysville people who have been cured to stay cured.
John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they stopped an attack of backache, one of many which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciated the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with backache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
